

Video Relay Service should be continued, enhanced and expanded to be sure deaf have access to modern means of communication. FCC should make every effort to provide the deaf with all available communication avenues without cost or unreasonable cost.